

17thkritnet-conference in Berlin “(Un-)Doing borders.Realities of the border regime – utopias of freedom of movement”

1. - 4.11.2018, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

17thkritnet-conference in Berlin “(Un-)Doing borders.Realities of the border regime – utopias of freedom of movement”

Application via: <https://eveeno.com/kritnet17>

Thursday, 1st November 2018

7 pm

Launch event with worldcafé, get together & solidarity bar

“Braustube” (Berlin Global Village e.V., Am Sudhaus 2, 12053 Berlin)

Friday, 2nd November 2018

Conference venue:

Universitätsgebäude am Hegelplatz

Dorotheenstraße 24

10117 Berlin

9:30 am

Welcome & organizational matters

10 am – 12.30 pm

Slot 1:

Open Space (2h):

Gender researchers within kritnet and beyond: How to deal with transnational feminist perspectives and activities? (G/ENG)

Slot 2:

Workshop (2h):

“Let’s support each other! – self-organised spaces for learning” (G/ENG) (IGDafDazB Basisbildung, Autonomes Kollektiv:Offene Deutschkurse)

Slot 3:

Talks (3h):

Criminalisation and illegalisation of failed asylum seekers and resistance (ENG/D) (Aino Korvensyrjä, Claudia Wilopo u.a.)

Data on bodies: containing mobilities from Windhoek to Lesbos (ENG) (Anouk Madörin)

Borderwork troubles: filtering apparatus at the hotspot (ENG) (Jacopo Anderlini)

Slot 4:

Workshop (2,5h):

Questioning the state’s authority to delineate borders from a perspective of radical democracy. What is the potential of urban citizenship?(G/ENG) (engagée, Zeitschrift für politisch-philosophische Einmischungen, Valerie Scheibenpflug and Johannes Siegmund)

17th kritnet-conference in Berlin “(Un-)Doing borders. Realities of the border regime – utopias of freedom of movement”

1. - 4.11.2018, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

12.30 – 2 pm

Lunch break with kitchen for all “Le Sabot”

2 – 5 pm

Slot 1:

Workshop (3h):

The externalisation of the EU border regime in African countries (G/ENG/FRA) (Afrique-Europe Interact)

Talk (within the 3h):

Externalizing: inside out – Senegal and Ghana and the making of national migration policy (ENG) (Leonie Jegen)

Slot 2:

Workshop (3h):

Global freedom of movement as a project: How to argue for it, how to realise it (G/ENG) (Andreas Cassee, Fabian Georgi, Harald Bauder)

Slot 3:

Node meeting (2h):

Meeting of different groups working on racism in the justice system: Justizwatch, Berlin; Forschungskollektiv Rassismus vor Gericht, Switzerland, with Özge Pinar Sarp (activist & consultant for persons affected by right-wing violence)

Slot 4:

Workshop with discussion (1,5h):

Social work among refugees – knowledge, experiences and education in counselling and care. Input on developments in Austria (G) (Irene Messinger)

5:30 pm

Dinner with kitchen for all “Le Sabot”

7 – 9 pm

Panel discussion in the Aquarium/Südblock (Skalitzer Str. 6):

“Antiracist migration policy– between utopia and pragmatism?”

Daniel Tietze (Staatssekretär für Integration (LINKE))

Prof. Dorothee Frings (University of Applied Science Niederrhein)

Antje Dieterich (Solidarity City Berlin)

Discussion hosted by Carolin Wiedemann

Followed by a get together in the Südblock

17th kritnet-conference in Berlin “(Un-)Doing borders. Realities of the border regime – utopias of freedom of movement”

1. - 4.11.2018, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Saturday, 3rd November 2018

9.30 am

Arrival and snacks

Appointments for the open space (for Saturday afternoon)

10 am – 1 pm

Slot 1:

Panel discussion:

The border regime's current shapes and tendencies (G/ENG) (Sabine Hess u.a.)

Slot 2:

Workshop (3h):

Can rights-based claims advance the political struggle against the current border regimes?
(ENG/FRA) (Marco Perolini)

Slot 3:

Exchange- and networking breakfast:

Dear colleagues, what do we do now? Education in the context of denationalisation and security discourses (G/ENG) (IGDafDazB Basisbildung, Autonomes Kollektiv:Offene Deutschkurse)

Slot 4:

Workshop (2h): 11 am – 1 pm!

Donauwörth and police violence in asylum camps – practical solidarity? (ENG) (David Jassey, Aino Korvensyrjä u.a.)

Slot 5: 11:30 am – 1 pm!

Open Space: How do we want to live in 2048? Visionary politics and struggles for freedom of movement (G/ENG) (Konzeptwerk Neue Ökonomie, Matthias Schmelzer & Miriam Gutekunst)

1 – 2:30 pm

Lunch break with kitchen for all “Le Sabot”

2:30 – 6 pm

Slot 1:

Thinking about Kritnet as a network: future perspective and aims (G/ENG)

Slot 2:

If required: Open Space

6 pm

Dinner with kitchen for all “Le Sabot”

8 pm

Party with “Procrastinators United”!

17thkritnet-conference in Berlin “(Un-)Doing borders.Realities of the border regime – utopias of freedom of movement”

1. - 4.11.2018, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Sunday, 4th November 2018

9.30 am

Brunch with “Le Sabot”

10 – 12 am

Network meeting: Solidarity City – where do we go, what is happening now and in the future?
(G/ENG/FRA)

12 am – 1 pm

Closing plenary (with inputs by the kritnet-node Leipzig on right-wing social conditions (G/ENG))

Application via: <https://eveeno.com/kritnet17>